Please read each paragraph below carefully. If there is any part of this page you do not understand, please ask for clarification before signing.

I understand that nothing contained in the application or conveyed to me during any interview which may be granted is intended to create an employment contract, implied or explicit, between me and The Company. In addition, I understand and agree that if I am employed, my employment is for no definite period and may be terminated at any time, with or without prior notice, with or without cause or reason, at the option of either myself or The Company, and that no promises or representations modifying this at will employment relationship are binding on The Company unless made in writing and signed jointly by an authorized agent of The Company and myself.

I hereby certify that I have not knowingly withheld any information that might adversely affect my chances for employment and that the responses to this application (including any attachments) given by me are true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I further certify that I, the undersigned applicant, have personally completed this application. I understand that any omission or misstatement on this application or on any documents used to secure employment shall be grounds for rejection of this application or for immediate discharge if I am employed, regardless of the time elapsed before discovery.

I hereby authorize Friedkin Companies, Inc. (FCI) and/or The Company to thoroughly investigate my references, work records, education and other matters related to my suitability for employment and, further, authorize my current and former employers to disclose to FCI and/or The Company any and all letters, reports, and other information pertaining to my employment with them, without giving me prior notice of such disclosure. In addition, I hereby release FCI and/or The Company, my current and former employers, all other persons, corporations, partnerships and associations from any and all claims, demands or liabilities arising out of or in any way related to such investigation or disclosure.

I understand that employment is contingent on my passing a pre-employment drug screen and post-offer physical examination (if a physical is relevant to the position for which I am applying). By signing this application, I voluntarily agree to submit to a pre-employment drug screen and post-offer physical examination. I understand that failure to pass either will result in withdrawal or denial of an offer for employment.

If hired, I also agree to submit to random drug testing as a condition of employment. I agree that FCI and/or The Company may conduct drug screenings at its sole discretion with or without notice, with or without cause or reason. I also understand that refusal to submit to a random alcohol/drug screen will be considered a voluntary resignation of employment.

If the position applied for requires driving in the course of work, I understand that I will be required to possess a current and valid driver's license and understand that I may be required to provide a copy of my official driving record and proof of insurance. I also understand that any offer of employment is contingent on my ability to be covered by The Company's insurance policy if required for my position.

My signature below certifies that I have read and understand each paragraph above, and agree to the terms and conditions outlined in the document.

DRUG TESTING AND TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT STATUS

It is the policy of Friedkin Companies, Inc. and its affiliates (the “Company”) to have a drug-free environment. All final candidates being considered for employment by the Company must submit to and pass a drug test prior to receiving full-time or part-time employment status. Any candidate who refuses to take, fails to provide an adequate sample for, provides an adulterated sample for, or who subsequently fails the drug test will be permanently ineligible for hire.

The drug test will be conducted by a certified laboratory with all data to be held in confidence except as otherwise necessary to carry out the terms and objectives of the Company’s policies. It is your responsibility prior to the drug testing to inform the laboratory of any medication, prescribed or non-prescribed, that you may be taking and/or have taken within the last sixty (60) days prior to the testing.

In the event you are requested to begin work prior to our receipt of your drug test results, your employment status will be classified as “temporary.” To that effect, please read and sign the following release:

I understand that if I am hired prior to the Company’s receipt of my drug test results, my status is “temporary.” I understand that if the drug test results are negative, my status will change from “temporary” to full-time or part-time, and if the results are positive, I will be terminated as a temporary employee and will become ineligible for rehire in any status.

I consent to the release of the results of any drug test to authorized representatives of the Company for appropriate review. I release and discharge the Company and its affiliates, including but not limited to Friedkin Companies, Inc., stockholders, directors, officers, and employees, as well as any other person charged with liability or responsibility, from any and all claims and demands arising from the drug test and/or any effect that the test, or the refusal to take such test, may have on my employment status or my eligibility for rehire in any status. This release expressly includes any clerical or laboratory error. I further acknowledge and agree that if I am hired in any status (including temporary, full-time, or part-time), I am hired as an “employee-at-will” and can be terminated at any time for any reason, with or without cause.

Investigative consumer reporting agencies complying with requests for certified mailings under this section shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the investigative consumer reporting agencies.
- (3) A summary of all information contained in files on a consumer and required to be provided by Section 1786.10 shall be provided by telephone, if the consumer has made a written request, with proper identification for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to the consumer.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.

- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-800-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:
